

Qualifying Parents of Preschoolers Attend for FREE!

Parents of preschoolers, are you searching for the right educational program? Are you wondering if home education is an option for you and your child? If so, we invite you to come as our guest to the GHEA Homeschool Conference & Curriculum Fair, held April 29-30, May 1, 2010, at the Georgia International Convention Center in Atlanta.

Over the three days of convention, you'll get to choose from more than 70 workshop including special sessions on how to begin homeschooling, parenting, learning styles, worldview, family life, raising boys, the mechanics of homeschooling, and MUCH more. You'll also get to explore the Exhibit Hall, which is filled with almost 120 booths of the latest and greatest educational materials and resources—all as our guest!

Do I Qualify for Free Admittance?

To attend for free,

- your eldest child must be under five years of age (his or her fifth birthday must be after April 30, 2010), and
- this must be your first GHEA convention.

You will need to pre-register, but your registration is absolutely FREE! This offer will not be available for walk-in registration.

How Do I Register?

Register online. If you have any trouble, feel free to call our office at 770-461-3657

Read more about convention features on the convention home page!

Please Note: Only nursing infants and children 10 and older who have registered and paid for the conference are permitted in the workshops. Parents who plan to attend workshops should make childcare arrangements for their toddlers or other unregistered children. (The Children's Program is available for children ages 6 to 12.)